... low price wouldn't be worth it but I'm so happy with this purchase

By CMFlis

I was skeptical that a Disney cookbook for such a low price wouldn't be worth it but I'm so happy with this purchase! Great recipes, adorable pictures, I LOVE the punch out tags in the back. Would definitely recommend this

This cookbook looks like family fun to me!

By Dad of Divas

The cookbook is certainly written in a child friendly way. It contains more than 25 recipes for homemade holiday treats. Many of the recipes can be prepared as gifts and there are punch-out tags in the back to include with the homemade gift.

The recipes included are for breakfast, lunch, dinner, sides and drinks, and desserts. There are photographs of each prepared recipe. All the ingredients can easily be located in your grocery store. The directions are written well and are easy to follow.

The perfect family book for the holidays!

By Colin Winch

This book is amazing! Every recipe we've tried has been easy to follow and delicious. The recipes are written very clearly and it's even perfect for a parent who may not have as much experience cooking themselves. The kids love being able to help and all the different treats and meals tie in great with the different movies. All the food is easy to make but complex enough that the kids feel like they've really created something. And it's not just kids food; everything we tried has been great and if it weren't for the Disney theme you may not even know it was a kids cookbook. Boo's Breakfast Bars are amazing and the zucchini and meatballs meal has become a regular dinner for us. We've tried books like this before and it can sometimes feel like the recipes are too simple or just too much to keep our kids interest. This book has hit that perfect middle ground we've been looking for. I can't recommend this book enough whether it's for your family or as a gift for the holidays!
