By E. Moore

A brilliant modern twist on a classic Roman play that had me hooked from beginning to end. It's short, but sweet. Okay, aaaaand a bit "sour" here and there.

I don't want to say too much, but if you're a fan the original tale (or classic tragedies in general) and have a bit of an open mind, then you will love Sarah Kane's rendition of Seneca's "Phaedra."

If you've never read the original. this remake is still worth a read.
