At first this book seemed really good, but later it got painful to read

By Darbak

I didn't buy this book.

I read some part through Google.

At first this book seemed really good, but later it got painful to read.

For example, the following.

What does "groups of people that are part of a collective noun" mean?

AT THE BACK OF

normally designates a position at the rear part of something such as groups of people that are part of a collective noun, or things that are inside or outside a place:
