About the Author

After a near miscarriage by his mom before birth and an action packed entrance into the world, Chandler grew up as a rebellious adventure seeker trapped in a small town. Chandler was bit by the entrepreneurial bug at an early age when he saw that he could make a lot more money working for himself. While his friends were off searching for jobs, he was out starting businesses. Chandler now speaks to students across the country, teaching them the lessons he's learned as a young entrepreneur and encouraging them to take the entrepreneurial leap through his business, Self-Publishing School.

Get ready for this book to disappear from your bookshelves..

By SJ

If you are looking at self-publishing, this book is the guide-map, checklist and bible rolled into one handy toolkit. Chandler knows that writing the book is the easiest part of the process, publishing and marketing can be a minefield for a novice author. With this book. Chandler clearly hands over the power of publishing into your hands. Based on successfully guiding many first time and expert authors to bestseller status, this book gives proven and tested facts, taking the guesswork out of what can be a complex process and reducing it to a step by step process. Publish. Rinse. Repeat. I will be ordering a print copy as well, to hand out to people asking how to get published! Or maybe, I won't share it, as I know it will never come back. No, its good to share excellent content!!
