Decent start...it was just ok.

By Poconomom3

The series started out ok and I thought we'd get more insight into the characters, but it just never happened. The choices made both professionally and personally by the characters just didn't make sense and were never really explained. There were unresolved issues and some things that didn't make sense by the end, such as he says that he should have thought about how she'd feel when he sold the home privately...then he asks her to move in there with him because he never sold it. I never felt a connection between or with the characters. It was a very short read. It was steamy when they got around to it, but it didn't flow. I read the title on KU.

so so

I didn't like this trilogy as much. Not enough character development and story. Was very rushed. Sex was good though.
