THE FRAY BY LOURDES SKYE PDF

Born in sin and abandoned, the vampire Scythe and his werewolf brother Aric trust no one. Scythe finds dealing with humanity easier than Aric, who becomes bitter and nightmarish. After seven hundred years, Scythe finds himself in Atlanta Georgia and he has discovered his human mate, Kuster Kyndeli. But Aric will have none of it. Chains, vampires, werewolves, feuding brothers, amazing sex, and an ex that just won't quit all have a part in the scheme of things for Scythe and Kuster, not to mention the male pregnancy.

In any fray, to the victor goes the spoils, and in this case, it's anyone's game.

Creative, steamy and engrossing fantasy of brotherhood and soulmates

By SEB

Completely original and definitely way out of my usual reads (I generally steer clear of too much horror or outrageous fantasy) but this one had so many elements of surprise that I found myself sucked in (no pun intended) and had way too much fun with this story.

A werewolf and a vampire who were born in sin and left on their own to survive have a falling out of sorts and are separated for hundreds of years. Scythe (yes, like the blade) is at home with humans and living in modern day Atlanta, while his wolf brother Aric is an angry and hostile beast who prefers the company of his own kind.

The big twist is the HOT M/M angle this book takes...as Scythe finds his "mate" in the form of a nerdy cute, self described "geek" of a college student and when they must fight against many adversaries before they can be together and "procreate"...things take an exciting and over-the-top turn into fantasyland and there will be much bloodshed before the final curtain.

I would not usually pick this type of book to read but I'm sort of glad I had the chance to try it out and I think this new author is quite creative with her storytelling, while also keeping the heat in the steamy romance department (which is what drew me in).

If you like vampires, werewolves, fantasy, horror and M/M sexuality...this book is right up your alley.

I received a free copy of this book for an honest review.

The adventures continues!

By Drivertoya

I love the stories that Lourde's concocts! I have read most of her books and enjoyed them emmensely! I look forward to seeing new ones! This is the first I've purchased because I usually read them through Kindle

Unlimited! The next generation is our, so I had to buy the first book. I am not disappointed though!

Suspenseful and fluid plot, well developed & used characters

By Cinthia Izquierdo

The story does not snooze. The story gets into action and flows right up to the end. All the characters are used perfectly. If I were to wish for one area of improvement, it would be in the writing of the sex scenes.

Defiantly needs more descriptive detail.
